Elyse Freshour
B.S., R.D.H.

Sexual harassment has become a prominent topic of discussion. It is found in all industries with the healthcare industry being no exception. All members in a facility should understand how to identify and react to workplace sexual harassment.

- Define and recognize sexual harassment.
- Understand how to address abusive and unlawful harassment/conduct in the workplace.
- Recognize various legal remedies available for victims of harassment.
- Establish strategies for prevention and response to harassment.
- Identify policies and documentation required for compliance.
- Understand their role in preventing sexual harassment and that of their supervisors.
